

Annual Report 2012

Foreword

Dear friends!

The last year 2012 for our organization was filled with important and interesting events, meetings and achievements. As in previous years, we were trying in our activity to promote democratic transformation of Ukrainian society, to support development of local communities, independent informational space and integration processes at local level. Considerable attention in 2012 our organization gave to promote transformation of cultural institutions into the centers of local activity.

The main feature of this year was that within our new big project "School of civic participation", which is realized with financial support of Ch. S. Mott Foundation, we met with a lot of active and interesting people. These people appeared to be our associates and their aim was also community development. For them our organization was doing its work in 2012. Moreover, we were trying to use all positive achievements from our experience, and also to contribute reasonable innovations, which allowed better and more qualitatively reaching our goals. For example, besides the resources of our organization, we involved specialists from our partner organizations - Center of Humanistic Technologies "AHALAR", Princess-Benefactors Ostrozky Foundation, Center for Civic and Cultural Initiatives Support "Tamarisk", Institute of Global Society Development. Beyond that we involved to realization of our projects partners from Poland (Local Activity Support Centre CAL) and Russia (Association «Sluzhinnia»). We hope that this year became not only interesting for our team, but also useful for our clients, for which our organization was created.

Lev Abramov,
President of Institute of Socio-Cultural Management

Publications of 2012

Institute of Socio-Cultural Management, as it always did, continues to inform civic activists about actual technologies of territorial communities development at the pages of informational bulletin "NGO-Inform". In 2012 were published 2 numbers of bulletin, one in printed version with circulation of 1000 numbers and one in digital edition. For participants of events, and also for everyone interested was worked out a text-book "Center of local activity for community development" with circulation of 1000 numbers. It was spread among the participant of "School of civic participation", according to the mailing list and requests for publication.

Abramov L.K., Azarova T.V. Center of local activity for community development.

For our organization, development of Centers of local activity is one of priority tasks, because in our activity we are based on following statements: our goal is communities development, indicator of this development is a condition of social capital, which is measured by level of trust between people; instrument, which works in this direction in communities is Center of local activity, and form of activity is social animation. That's why, relying on practical experience of our organization and activity of our partners, who share our point of view, we worked out the following publication to help civic activists - "Center of local activity for community development".

“NGO-Inform” №1 (46), 2012

This number has gathered interesting technologies and practices of local communities development in Ukraine, as well as abroad. In article "Expanding horizons" read about impressions from visit to Russia on the "Vth International Forum of Social Animators" of Maria Kalashnik, project coordinator of "School of civic participation". Article "The main is not to be afraid of a brave dream" will tell how a city Irpin could increase a level of cultural life to a very high level during a very little time.

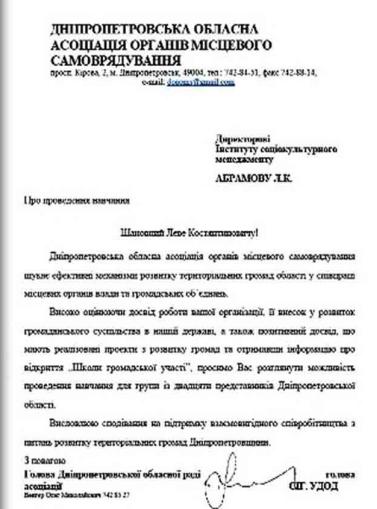

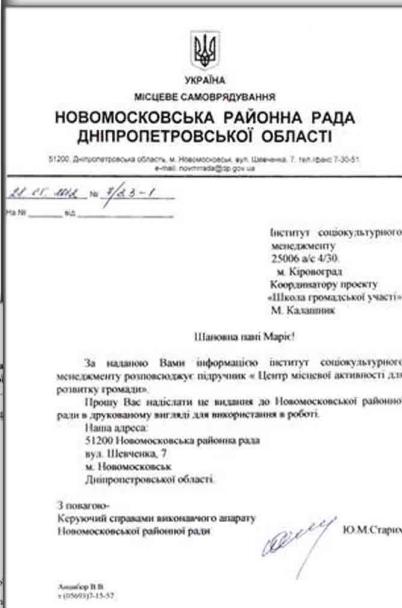

“NGO-Inform” №2 (47), 2012

In this publication get to know about thoughts of leading international experts on community development and social animation.

A lot of examples for realization of public initiatives in local communities will inspire for new beginnings and advice interesting methods and forms of work to activate citizens.

Міжнародний рух соціальних аниматорів

Рух соціальних аниматорів набуває все більшого поширення. Успіху в цьому змогла кіровоградка Марія Калашник — представниця громадської організації «Інститут соціокультурного менеджменту».

Її почастіло потрапити на Міжнародний форум соціальних аниматорів, який відбувся в Нижньому Новгороді (РФ). Там пройшли насичені семінари, тренінги та майстер-класи аниматорів з Росії та Білорусі. Для Марії, як координатора проекту «Школа громадської участі», це було дуже важливе зустрічі з іншими соціальними аниматорами, які виставлялися на форумі.

Відкритість практик і методів, свобода вибору дають змогу соєвувати співтовариство однодумців, які поділяють цінності та призи. Так, наприклад, філософія соціального аниматорства, покладена в основу роботи центрів активності людей (центрів місцевої активності), починає приживатися природою, без тиску згори. Сторони, що її підтримують, створюють шляхи, що ведуть до реалізації ідеї у власних громадах під час школи та після її завершення. Інститут соціокультурного менеджменту здійснюватиме консультивативну підтримку цього процесу.

У конкурсному відборі можуть брати участь працівники закладів культури, громадських організацій та ініціативних груп, які проаносять або хочуть проаносяти за методикою осередків (центрів) місцевої активності, в тому числі, на базі закладів культури. Претендентам на участь у Шкoli необхідно надіслати до Інституту соціокультурного менеджменту заповнений анкету, яку можна знайти на сайті організації: www.lacenter.org.ua. Останній термін подачі анкет — 10 травня 2012 року. Анкети подаються в електронному вигляді на адресу: adm.iscm@gmail.com.

Учасникам школи буде компенсовано вартість проїзду до місця навчання, а також забезпечене проживання в готелі та триразове харчування. Телефон для довідок: (0522) 27-10-95.

Кіровоградщина реформують заклади культури по всій країні

Цієї зими у місті Ірпінь відбулася Друга Національна конференція «Реформування закладів культури» у межах проекту, що його реалізовує Кіровоградська громадська організація «Інститут соціокультурного менеджменту» на підтримку процесу розвитку осередків громадської активності на базі закладів культури. Учасниками конференції були і представники громадських організацій, і закладів культури, і влади та міжнародних організацій із штандardi областей України. За результатами конференції було висловлене бажання, щоб ІСКМ представляв їх інтереси перед донорами, комерційними організаціями та висловлював сучасну думку про трансформацію закладів культури в осередки громадської активності. Також на конференції було презентовано нове видання ГО «Інститут соціокультурного менеджменту» — «Сторін діяльності НДО в соціокультурній сфері», про яке журнал «Кіровоградський Форум» писав у попередньому номері.
